To whom it may concern,

I am writing you this letter to formally request a fine waiver. Let me first introduce myself; my name is Quinten Adcock. I am a former candidate for Iberia Parish School Board; a volunteer football coach at a school in the district I was attempting to represent. I am a single father of 2 young girls who attend the elementary school in that same district; & I am a casualty of the oilfield living on a fixed income trying to support my family.

I was asked to run for the seat of school board because my desire & willingness to help others. I must admit, for a first time candidate, the amount of paperwork, demands & disclosure was overwhelming; I made mistakes. With little to no outside help, I ran a campaign, mostly self-funded, to the best of my abilities. Please refer to the table below:

DESCRIPTION	INCOMING	OUTGOING	BALANCE
Startup loan from myself	$1000.00
Other campaign donations	$1350.00
Campaign expenses		$1931.26
			$518.74
Repay myself		$1000.00	-$481.26

I'm not an accountant or an attorney but I do understand & appreciate that there are rules. When I turned in my last report, I understood that if I forgave the balance of the loan, I was done with reporting. Now I receive a letter which says that because I didn't turn in an election-day expenditure report, I have been fined $1000.00. I am requesting a fine waiver & throwing myself & my family at the mercy of your decision. Please consider that I'm first time candidate trying to make a difference & innocently made mistakes.

Warm regards,

Quinten Adcock
